Code of Conduct

- Participants do hereby agree to uphold the Code of Conduct.
- Harassment or intimidation by words, gestures, body language or any other menacing behavior will not be tolerated.
- Participants exhibiting abusive behavior, either verbally or physically toward a patron or campus recreation employee will be asked to leave the facility immediately. If the participant refuses to leave the facility, Northeastern University Public Safety will be called to remove the participant.
- Each participant is legally and financially responsible for any removal, defacing or willful damage to public or private property. This includes the property of fellow participants, staff and Northeastern University.
- The use, possession or concealment of any drugs, tobacco products, alcoholic beverages, weapons and firearms is forbidden.
- Proper work-out attire must be worn at all times. Food, beverages, gym bags, shopping bags, luggage, briefcases, backpacks, street shoes, boots, open-toe shoes, sandals, jeans, cargo pants and jackets are not allowed above the ground floor.
- Any individual acting in the fashion of a personal trainer must be hired through the Campus Recreation Office at 140 Marino Center. Personal training on the premises of any Northeastern Recreation Facility is restricted to Northeastern Personal Trainers only. Any individual found soliciting these types of services will be denied further access to these facilities.
